Imprisoned Dog With Rescuer

Leo Yonetti, a disabled veteran of World War 2, is shown in his home with a dog which has been the "talk of the town" in the Bloomington area of Ulster county for several days. Leo and his brother, Thomas, also a veteran, affected the rescue Thursday night of the animal which had been imprisoned in one of the abandoned cement quarries at Bloomington for about two weeks. The brothers, members of the Bloomington Fire Department, descended by the use of ropes about 200 feet to the point where the dog was located and returned the unharmed animal to the surface. The exciting rescue started about 5:30 p. m. and was completed about 7 p. m. C. E. Doty, another member of the Bloomington Fire Department, reported that the dog was in good shape, except for a small cut on the top of the head. The unclaimed dog, Doty said, was described as black in color, a white mark on the chest, and with all four feet speckled in white. (Freeman Photo)

House Hopes to Send Draft To Truman by Adjournment

G.O.P. Record Is Likely Platform

E.R.P., Draft, Tax Cut, Farm Program, Aid for Housing

Washington, June 11 (AP)—The congressional record Republicans will carry into the presidential campaign began to take on form today.

Barren last-hour changes, it appears to be pointing toward a platform built on:

FOREIGN—European recovery help; a $500,000,000 ship for the next year; $100,000,000 in military aid; $100,000,000 in military aid; $100,000,000 in military aid.

DOMESTIC—Tax reduction, farm program, aid for housing, and a one-year extension of the reciprocal trade program.

MILITARY—A two-year draft extension from 19 through 25 and a super-draft for 1949.

Martin Says Measure Will Be Called to Floor Tuesday, Wednesday

Washington, June 11 (AP)—House Republican leaders stamped an emphatic "must" today on enactment of a peacetime draft law next week.

Encouraged by the whopping 78-to-10 vote the Senate gave its selective service revival bill, House supporters were confident of sending a finished measure to President Truman before adjournment.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) told reporters the House bill will be called to the floor Tuesday or Wednesday. He predicted it will pass with only one day of debate. This would contrast with six days and three nights of Senate ratification.

House Rules Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-Ill.) said his committee will meet Monday to vote the House measure "up or down." The bill has been awaiting rules committee clearance since May 7.

With adjournment tentatively set for a week from Saturday, the bill cannot be debated in the House unless the rules committee approves it.

Allen then revised an earlier statement.

Says Slash Would End Fund Aims

Hoffman Says Brunt of Cut Would Fall on Machinery and Equipment

Decries Proposal

Emergency Is Here, He Says of Taber Idea to Come Back

Washington, June 11 (AP)—The boss of the European Recovery Program said today House cuts in E.R.P. funds would virtually "eliminate" plans to put Europe's industry back on its feet.

"The brunt of the cut must fall on the machinery and equipment necessary to restore or increase Europe's productive capacity," Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman told the Senate Appropriations Committee.

"The most productive and the most far-reaching part of the recovery program would for all practical purposes be eliminated."

Hoffman's first formal appeal for restoration of the full $5,300,000,000 in recovery funds showed that machinery shipments would have to be reduced from $1,100,000,000 to $100,000,000 if the Senate upholds the House slash.

"The House voted to spread the $5,300,000,000 over 15 months instead of the 12 months authorized by Congress in setting up E.R.P. This would have the effect of cutting recovery spending from $1,000,000,000 to $200,000,000."

In advance of Hoffman's appearance, a Republican member predicted the committee would head plans of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and others and put back most of the cuts made by the House. Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, had been fighting the reduction since the House acted.

Hoffman said food and raw materials must keep flowing. If Europe is to survive, therefore, the industrial recovery goods would have to be cut.

He described the proposal of Chairman John Taber (R-N.Y.) of the House Ways and Means Committee that E.R.P. come back for more funds next year if it runs out.

"I can not state too strongly that the emergency is here," Hoffman said, adding:

"Our rate of expenditure during the next six months will determine whether we are now launching a true recovery program."

The Republican businessman said he could not presume to tell Congress that any specific sum should be appropriated. But he expressed belief any cut below the original authorization would be "most unwise and shortsighted."

"I wish to state most emphatically that money will not be spent merely because it has been appropriated," he assured the committee.

"No matter what appropriation the Congress decides to make, we will spend only what we believe

150 Persons Reported Missing As Danish Ship Strikes Mine

Court of Appeals Upholds Dismissal Of Housing Grant

Constitutionality Challenge Was Brought Only by Taxpayer, No Rights Violated

Albany, N. Y., June 11 (AP)—The Court of Appeals unanimously upheld today lower court dismissal of a suit challenging constitutionality of a $128,000 state housing grant to a Catholic college. There was no opinion.

Henry Adsl Bull, Buffalo lawyer and taxpayer, sought to nullify the allocation to Canisius College, Buffalo, on the ground it violated federal and state constitutional prohibitions against public aid to sectarian institutions.

Lower courts refused to rule on the constitutional question and dismissed the suit.

Lower courts ruled that Bull was "a mere taxpayer" whose rights were not specifically violated and therefore was not entitled to bring suit.

The absence of an opinion it was assumed the state's highest tribunal followed the same line of reasoning as the State Supreme Court and the Appellate Division, Third Department.

The money was allocated to Canisius a year ago as part of the State Emergency Housing Board's program to provide special housing and classroom facilities for veterans in New York colleges.

The grant to Canisius was for conversion of a hospital into a school building.

Bull, seeking to nullify the grant, contended the improvement would be of permanent value to the college and thus in violation of the basic law of the state and nation.

Assistant Attorney General Henry S. Manley said in lower court arguments that a finding of unconstitutionality would jeopardize the Dover administration's entire program to expand educational facilities for World War 2 veterans.

He said many New York colleges had sectarian backgrounds.

Four organizations entered the case as friends of the court in support of Bull's position. They were the American Jewish Congress, the American Civil Liberties Union, the Nassau Taxpayers League and the Citizens of New York City.

Bull had indicated previously that he might carry the case to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Passenger Vessel Was Carrying 400 Persons in Kattegat; 13 Severely Wounded to Hospital; Boat Sinks in 10 Minutes

Aalborg, Denmark, June 11 (AP)—A Danish passenger vessel carrying 400 persons struck a mine and sank in the Kattegat early today and at mid-morning 150 of the passengers and crew members still were unaccounted for.

The vessel was the 1,688-ton steamer Kjoebenhavn, owned by the United Steamship Company (D.F.D.S.). A company official said most of the passengers not accounted for must be feared drowned. He said about 250 passengers and crew members had been rescued by 10 a. m. (5 a. m. E.S.T.).

The first vessel to reach shore from the scene of the disaster was the Danish tanker Dangulf Lube, which carried 13 severely wounded. She touched at the small Hals harbor at 9 a. m. Ambulances were waiting and the survivors were hurried to the local hospital, where doctors had been standing by since early morning.

The Kjoebenhavn was traveling between Copenhagen and Aalborg when she hit the mine. Aalborg is northwest of Copenhagen across the Kattegat.

The company said the ship went down in 10 minutes, four miles south of the Aalborg Bay lightship in the northern part of the Kattegat. Early reports to the company, it said, indicated only two life boats were lowered before the vessel sank.

Many ships in the area hurried to the scene and one, the Frigga, also owned by the D.F.D.S. Company reported that she had picked up about 200 passengers from the sunken ship. Many of them, the Frigga reported, suffered severe wounds and others were suffering from exposure.

Planes dropped lifebelts to passengers swimming in the sea. Relatives of crew members and passengers sought information about the survivors but the only complete passenger list was aboard the Kjoebenhavn, and company officials in Copenhagen are trying to reconstruct it.

One official said about 200 of the passengers probably were asleep in their berths when the explosion occurred. The rest traveled steerage and most of them spent the night in deck chairs.

Injuries Are Slight

Automobiles operated by Alfred Buley of Lawrenceville street, and Helen Mary Scott of 103 Foxhall avenue collided at the intersection of Ten Broeck avenue and Elmendorf street Thursday shortly after noon, the police reported. Both of the persons received slight injury, according to Policemen James Burns and Earl Schoonmaker, who investigated, but did not require medical treatment.

The Buley car was damaged about its front end, while the right side of the Scott car was damaged, police said.

To Hit Tomorrow

The U.S. Weather Bureau warned that the unruly Columbia river's third crest would hit the lower valley tomorrow, driving floodwaters at Portland to a new 1948 high—50 feet. The levee was 28.5 feet from the crest, protecting the Oregon metropolis June 1.

Canada's big Fraser river rode a new high for the year—24.7 feet—along imperilled lowlands near the Pacific. It still was rising.

American and Canadian authorities ordered new evacuations as the Columbia and Fraser maintained relentless pressure on levees saturated by weeks of high water.

The 5,500 residents of Sumas Prairie in British Columbia were told to flee their 20,000 acres of fertile farmland, protected from a 32-foot wall of Fraser water by the five-mile Vedder canal dike system. The Canadian Navy said the situation was "deteriorating" in this district about 60 miles up-river from Vancouver, B. C.

In the hard-pressed lower Columbia valley, U. S. Army Engineers ordered evacuation of 400 people from a 13-mile stretch of levee district 13 near Kelso, Wash., 40 miles downstream from Portland. It joins the south Kelso district, from which 5,000 previously fled.

Damage Unestimated

Refugees from these areas joined some 60,000 persons already told to flee their homes by three weeks of floods that have taken 33 known victims and run damage into untold figures beyond $100,000,000.

The Red Cross said it still has not found a trace of 59 persons since the Memorial Day flooding of Vancouver, war housing city of 18,700 near Portland. Vancouver's known death toll remained four.

Rehabilitation efforts brought hope to both the U. S. and Canada.

Germans May Get Currency Reform To Kill Inflation

Three-Nation Plan May Give Mark Value of 30 Cents Backed by Production

Berlin, June 11 (AP)—A currency reform, aimed at taking from 70 to 90 per cent of the present inflated money out of circulation, appears imminent in western Germany.

Officials refuse comment, but unofficial sources give this overall picture of Franco-Anglo-American plans to put western Germany on a self-sufficient financial basis:

1. The new western German mark will not have an immediate value on international markets. The new mark will be blocked. It is hoped eventually to give it an international value of 30 cents. Internally, the mark will be so devalued to be worth approximately 30 cents in services and goods by world standards. (The prewar mark was 40 cents.)

2. The new money reform will be the most drastic taken in western Europe—much more so than Germany's 1923 devaluation. Low official estimates state it will take 70 per cent of the currency out of circulation. Highest estimates are 90 per cent. All savings of over 3,000 marks ($1,000) probably will be wiped out or reduced to small fractions.

3. The new currency will be backed by western Germany's ability to produce. The currency issue will be limited to productive capacity.

Post office officials have issued regulations against wholesale buying of stamps to prevent speculation. Railroad officials have placed a similar stop on wholesale buying of season rail tickets.

The plan will be put into effect by the occupation powers. The Allies do not want German officials blamed for hardships which will be worked in many cases.

However, German finance officials have been consulted for the past two years on their ideas.

The new currency will be issued through the trizone state banks. This group is headed by the presidents of the state banks in each occupation zone.

To preserve value of the currency, the military government will insist on strict control of Continued on Page Eighteen

Arabs Say Jews Killed After Truce

Israel Communique Says Important Successes Are Effected in Final Moments

Yarden Is Taken

Jewish Settlement Falls in Upper Galilee, Arabs Say

Cairo, June 11 (AP)—Armed peace for at least four weeks began in Palestine today, bringing with it a glimmer of hope for an end to Arab-Jewish warfare.

Indications from the Holy Land were that the truce fixed by the United Nations mediator was generally observed. However, the Arab legion accused the Jews of killing an Arab soldier in Jerusalem and Jewish Tel Aviv had an air raid alert after the truce deadline, 1 a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Jews and Arabs made last-minute jabs to improve their military position. The lines will remain stabilized while peace talks are carried out on the island of Rhodes, under United Nations sponsorship.

An Israeli communique claimed important successes in a last-minute battle of Jews with the Arab legion at Latrun, far control of the key road from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv. It said Jews attacked in darkness after two nights of heavy artillery and mortar preparation against a rocky hill stronghold held by a full Arab legion brigade. The Arabs reported in Mamman, Trans-Jordan, that the Jewish attack failed and the Jews lost at least 100 killed and a number of prisoners.

The Jews also reported capture of an Arab village and military camp east of Majdal, on the coast south of Tel Aviv, in new operations against an Egyptian spearhead which they said has been cut off. The Egyptians said they raised a siege of Nisimian near Isdud.

In the north the Syrian army announced the fall of Mishmar Hay Yarden, a Jewish settlement in Upper Galilee. The Syrians previously reported they destroyed this settlement. Jewish bombs dropped on the Syrian capital of Damascus.

Tel Aviv's air alert ended a half hour after it sounded. There was no explanation. The drone of a plane could be heard over the city, but no sounds of explosions.

In Beirut, Lebanon, Premier Riad El Solh told newsmen he had word from the front that Lebanese troops, aided by Syrians and Arab volunteers, "attacked successfully, reaching Nazareth and Afula and thus dominating the road from Jenin to Haifa." Haifa is held by the Jews. Jenin is the top of the Arab triangle in north central Palestine.

To Visit City

Trans-Jordan's King Abdullah arranged to visit the Arab-held old city of Jerusalem today, coming in along the Jericho road under armed escort. He will leave for the highway for his passage. Cheering crowds of Arabs gathered to hail him as the king of Jerusalem.

Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, the U. N. mediator, will try to negotiate a permanent peace. He has set up headquarters at Rhodes. But in Amman, Trans-Jordan's Premier Tewfik Abu Al-huda predicted the Arabs might refuse to sit at the same conference table with the Jews, in line with a "traditional policy."

The Arab States still are unwilling to accept partition, and the Jews are just as unwilling to give it up.

Seven U. S. naval officers arrived by air in Cairo and left three hours later for Haifa, to take up duties as truce observers for Bernadotte. They were briefed here by Col. Thord Bonde of Sweden, head of Bernadotte's staff of military observers. The Swedish colonel himself then left with a U. N. civilian employee for Trans-Jordan to serve as an observer.

Bernadotte will leave here tomorrow on a tour taking him to Amman, Jerusalem and Rhodes and back to Cairo next Tuesday.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Fasha, secretary general of the Arab League called the league's political committee to meet here Monday.

The league includes seven Arab states and the British Mandate for Palestine. Continued on Page Eighteen

Only $1.53 More, Mayor Says Of Tax on $7,000 Property

With misunderstanding still prevailing concerning his proposed 33 1/3 per cent blanket raise in local assessments, Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk has presented a comparison in actual figures, showing that taxpayers will not pay a third more than they have been.

He would cut the tax rate from $41.76 to $31.78, a slash of $9.98, his table of figures shows.

"Many are of the opinion that their taxes will jump a third under this new assessment plan," the mayor said, "but in reality the increase will be so slight that no one need become deeply alarmed about it."

Presenting the matter in clarified form, using a $7,000 piece of property assessed for $2,500 at present, and which would be assessed at $3,330 under the 33 1/3 plan, the mayor pointed out that the taxpayer would pay only $1.53 more on his whole bill.

'Captain Molly' Is Honored by D.A.R.

West Point Ceremony Was Arranged by Mrs. Alton Parker

tain Molly." The memorialization program was arranged by Mrs. Alton Brooks Parker, chairman of the Margaret Corbin Memorial Committee. The invocation and benediction were given by Cadet Chaplain Frank E. Pulley; Lieutenant Colonel Allen W. Ginder, representing Major General Maxwell D. Taylor, the superintendent of the Military Academy, addressed the group briefly. Also present at the ceremonies was Lieutenant Colonel William G. Proctor, public information officer. When her husband was mortally wounded in the Battle of Fort Washington, in November, 1776, "Captain Molly" took his place at the small cannon he was serving and continued to perform his duties until she was severely wounded. Having been completely incapacitated by her wounds, Mrs. Corbin was pensioned by the Executive Council of Pennsylvania, her husband having been attached to the First Company of Pennsylvania Artillery. She was later granted a lifetime pension by the Continental Congress of 1779, which she received in kind from the commissary at West Point. Her original grave in the Old Cemetery at Highland Falls was discovered in 1926 by the Daughters of the American Revolution, and her remains were reburied at that time in the Post Cemetery at West Point.

At the conclusion of the memorial services, members of the New York State Officers' Club, D.A.R., and their guests, had luncheon at the U. S. Hotel Thayer here.

Fulton, N. Y., June 11, (AP)—A family of 14 children means the father "needs all the money he can earn," City Judge Maurice B. Conley observed yesterday. So he suspended a $5 fine against Harold Gannett of Granby, after the father had pleaded guilty to a speeding charge.

Woodstock News

By Peg Hard

Trick Horse Is Added to Riding Club Spring Show

Woodstock, June 10—El Chorro, Palamino trick horse, owned by Jimmy McCabe, Kingston, has been added to the list of features for Sunday, June 20, when the Woodstock Riding Club presents its second annual spring show beginning at 9:30 a. m. This valuable animal, it is understood, is a high-schooled horse with at least 16 tricks to his credit, including dance steps, the end of the trail, sitting up like a dog, cake walks, bows, and others. El Chorro will also be entered in some of the competitive classes in the show.

Tuesday evening several members of the club met with Cornelius V. V. Sewell, grounds committee chairman, at the ring and worked for several hours grading and raking. An extensive alteration job has been in progress at the ring, when weather permitted. A careful check-up showed that the ring was not level and in order to eliminate this situation it was necessary to lower it about four feet at one end before proper leveling could be made. The nature fence and posts had to be removed in order to do the job properly. It is expected that these will be placed in position within the next week.

Another large expenditure on the part of the club has been the addition of several jumps. These are now on the field and will be ready for use by the members within a few days.

An informal meeting was held when the work for the evening was completed and Audrey Good, co-chairman, reported that the trophies and ribbons have been received.

She described them as the finest the club has had.

Don Warren, show secretary, requested that all entries be sent in without delay as the souvenir program will go to press the end of this week.

A refreshment booth will be set up on the grounds and will be in charge of Fred Shults, Bearsville, who will be assisted by Roger Shults, Bearsville, and George Ronk, Wittenberg.

While the majority of those in the Woodstock Riding Club reside in the town of Woodstock, a goodly percentage of its membership which now totals well over one hundred, are from various parts of Ulster county. The organization has made tremendous progress during its short life and is working very hard toward being accepted by the American Horse Show Association for recognized shows. When accomplished, this will mean much not only to Woodstock but to the county as a whole.

The next meeting will be held on the grounds Tuesday evening, June 15th, at seven o'clock, when all members are urged to come out and lend a hand with the painting and other chores to be done preparatory to the Sunday show.

A clerk was changing his shoes. He had one shoe off and one shoe on when a drunk came to his desk. "What can I do for you?"

Drunk: "I wanna package of gum."

The clerk walked away. Drunk: "If you have to go downstairs for it, don't bother with it."

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, June 10.—After Henry Wallace decided to unload his mystical guru, Nicholas Roerich, he caused a "press release" to be issued from the Department of Agriculture, accompanied by official insinuations, that Roerich had been suspected of espionage during his nominal quest of grass and herbs in Asia. Wallace said Roerich was on a botanical mission but the old medicine man changed into politics and showmanship. He soon got himself suspected of pro-Russian activity by the Department of Agriculture and of anti-Russian themes by the Soviet government.

Biblehead Wallace may have been in on the political play, and he may not. It may not be attributed to him. He has shown himself to be a convincing double-crosser, a conspirator and a snook. The record of this idiotic incident of the guru, and just a few days ago, Harold Ickes, his old colleague in the cabinet, wrote that Henry Wallace is so concerned with political ambition that he isn't anything that he won't do to advance himself.

Ickes was relating an attempt by Wallace to line up Harry Hopkins and other high-ranking New Deal parasites to persuade old Roosevelt to fire Ickes. This was years before Roosevelt made Wallace vice president, so we see that Roosevelt knew the quality of the man he was placing in line for the presidency.

His realistic, far-seeing, nasty, and one might say, corrupt, nature made another, we could say, an inside appraisal of the whole hateful lot.

All right, so Wallace got scared when Roerich kicked up a fuss in the Orient and up in New York. Louis Horch, the great lover of the Roerich cult, decided that Roerich wasn't God Almighty, after all. Wallace wanted to throw the old guru in the pond with a rock around his neck and let him back to India to await orders which never would come. Horch prepared to reclaim the 26-story house on the edge of the city and to keep the fortune he had squandered. It would be his purpose if Roerich were washed from the country. The Treasury Department, a psychic coincidence, took the old guru on criminal charges of income tax evasion.

Wallace, who was Wallace's old friend, would be enabled to grab the money back without serious interference by an opposing party. The litigation was won, to all intents and purposes, ended. Wallace had his own reason for expelling Roerich out of the country.

When the Department of Agriculture made the crack about the guru having been suspected of espionage, Roerich's disciples in New York hired lawyers to sue for slander. That scared the department who likes a dollar as well as the next one. If Roerich had named him with a judgment of defamation, Henry would have to pay it out of his own pocket.

On February 3, 1936, Miles Perkins, one of his assistants, told a Mr. Hamilton, Far Eastern Division, State Department, a guest for copies of all Far Eastern newspaper comment about Roerich between October 1, 1934, and June 1, 1935. Perkins told the Department of Agriculture would pay the costs, although it was actually a personal loss of Henry Wallace. The day the State Department said "Feiping, Tientsin and Peking" to send in articles about Roerich between October 1, 1934, and the following June. Wallace knew Roerich had kicked up an awful odor in the oriental papers because Roerich had squawked to the lamassery in New York, and the disciples there had persuaded Henry to implore the Japanese ambassador, as a personal favor, to get his government to choke off the abuse in oriental papers under Japanese control. This Wallace did and the campaign stopped dead.

On February 12, 1936, Stuart E. Grummon, American consul, Dairen, Manchuria, wrote the State Department: "In compliance with instructions four articles which are stated to be the only ones appearing in Manchuria Daily News are enclosed."

Biblehead had the State Department working for him to defend him in the suit. Otherwise this service would have cost him at least $50,000.

On February 13, Walter A. Adams, consul general at Harbin, advised the secretary of state that "it is easy to understand why the Japanese military authorities in Manchuria became suspicious of Roerich."

The same dispatch enclosed copies of Harbin's "Vremya" for nine dates and of "Nash Put" for six dates. They were printed in Russian. Both papers mentioned Roerich and Rosicrucianism. The "Vremya," on November 17, 1934, in a piece covering two and one-half pages, said Roerich represented a "Mithraic brotherhood" and had political aims. Two days later, "Vremya" alleged that Roerich was trying to organize a Masonic state in Siberia.

On October 24, "Vremya" undertook to show that Roerich's writings were of a corruptive, anti-Christian nature.

Nash Put took the same line. An article on November 18 said the guru was a Masonic agent, a Rosicrucian and anti-Christian.

The November 20 edition said he was trying to establish federal states in Siberia. The next day Nash Put said the United States, through Roerich, was trying to grab Siberia.

Mr. Adams informed the State Department that the Japs strictly controlled all the Russian press of Harbin.

Horch claims to have been cold to the project of the Siberian state, with Roerich as a politico-spiritual "head." By the time of the grassseed expedition in 1934 he was hustled and wanted to run the lamassery in a practical way as a cultural layout to earn back some money. Nevertheless, the guru's letters to Horch from the Orient often mentioned "Kansas," the code name for Siberia, and Horch unquestionably was in on the wild scheme even if he did object to it. And Henry Wallace was Horch's close friend and his political sponsor.

Horch broke off relations in August, 1935, and there was a hell of a row among the ectoplasmists at the haunted house on Riverside Drive.

Ancient Instruments

London (AP)—"Lures," believed to be the world's oldest musical instruments, will be shown here next fall in an exhibition of Danish art treasures. Exhibits nearly 8,000 years old will be included in the three-month display, which begins at the Victoria and Albert Museum October 25 with the title "Denmark's Art treasures through the ages."

The rose was one of the first flowers to become domesticated. More than 200 species have been discovered and named.

SHOKAN

Shokan, June 11 Boy Scout Troop, 63, participated in a camporee at Woodland Valley, June 4-5. Attending the outing were: Scoutmaster Robert Adsit, S.P.L. Donald North, P. L. Harry Personeus, A.P.L. William Oakley, A.P.L. Arthur Bush, Lester Lawrence and Ernest Beesmer. The local Scouts had a good time at Woodland despite the damp weather.

Miss Eva Thost, a nurse at Bellevue Hospital, spent the weekend at her home on Route 28.

Sticky clay mud is retarding operations on the Route 28 road between the Ashokan Brook and the east end of Temple's Pond.

Further down the line, in Hurley, conditions are not so bad. A new machine for pouring concrete has arrived at the west terminus of the present 4-lane road, and steel forms have been distributed along the road nearly up to the Woodstock turn. Apparently the contractors plan to concrete two lanes at first, using the old pavement through West Hurley while the south half of the new road hardens. Final grading and sanding is proceeding at several points along the line.

Looking Backward

Joseph H. Kenny, the "man with the money-bugs" from the N.Y.C. comptroller's office, during a two-days visit to the "long green room" of Augustus VanBuren and Everett Fowler has paid out $271,000 in awards to Ashokan Reservoir country property holders and in lawyers' and witnesses' fees.

Some of the Olive and Hurley residents who benefit from this are: Joseph S. Hill, $6,602; Lucas Rossi, $6,370; Abner and Grace Wlone, $5,096; Delilah Bush and others, $4,080; Ellen Schutt, $3,262; Herbert Dibbel, $5,852; Herman Eckert and others, $7,078; Asa Maricle and others, $5,520; Assenath Bishop, $10,281; Rebecca Bonesteel, $3,078; Pliny Barton $5,838; Fred Saxe, $2,650, and Chauncey Lane, $15,377.

George Whittle who died Tuesday in Kingston was for many years one of the best known men of the northern sections of Olive and Hurley. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whittle, whose mountain farm home lay along the Back Brook, between Boleville and the Coons District of Shokan. Mr. Whittle was a most industrious farmer and did well on his large acreage north of Temple's Pond and against Tonche mountain.

Having a Birthday

Those near neighbors in the village center, Earl Elmdorf and Henry Gebbelein, May 13 and May 14, respectively. Earl is one of the few residents of Shokan who lived in the present village center before there was a village here. A son of the late Henry and Sarah (Coons) Elmdorf, he has been a member of the gate chamber staff down at the Ashokan reservoir for many years. . . . Henry Gebbelein bought the H. C. Elmdorf farm and came here from Brooklyn to make his home several years ago. A designing engineer in earlier life, he is a versatile fellow—the kind who can take apart and re-assemble his car, or what have you.

Louis Thiel, retired state road farmer, has added a new Stevens sixshot, single-barreled shotgun to his interesting collection of old and modern firearms. Lou likes to have plenty of guns and radios around the house. Recently, one of his five radios, a cabinet model, went off the air, so to speak; but after it had been accidentally pushed over on the floor, it worked all right. Lou's guns never go back on him, however, even the

High-Voltage 'Machine Gun'

It looks like the super-machine gun for the war of the future, but it isn't. Carroll N. old muzzle-loaders still pack a "whale of a kick."

Strange but True

Occasionally, we hear or read of accidents in the Catskills where people have stepped or slid off one of the precipices which abound among these mountains of the sky. Horses, too, and vehicles, have been known to slide off a trail and go tumbling into the rock-studded cascades far below. Deaths and crippling injuries in these happenings have been numerous in the past as the records show, especially in the Catskills, Kill, Plattekill and Stony Cloves. One of the oldest recorded accidents of this nature took place July 20, 1850, when a Utica youth weighing nearly 200 pounds slipped from the inclined surface of a rock at the head of the lower falls, near the Laurel House, and went hurtling 80 feet into the rocky basin below. Fortunately for the youth, the falls was in freshet at the time, and his injuries, a broken leg and shoulder blade, were not fatal. A companion, Peter Schutt, waited through the lake and summoned Mr. Beech, proprietor of the mountain house, and one of his help at the resort, an old bear hunter named Thorpe, and the men succeeded in the Herculean task of carrying the youth up the steep bank. It was more than 10 hours later before two physicians reached the mountain house, and six weeks before the Utica resident, his recovery expedited by the careful nursing of Mrs. Schutt, was able to leave for his home. Some years previous to this miraculous happening, a dog went over the upper falls, and, landing in the basin 180 feet below, was able to climb up the steep bank to the house. Other incidents have had less happy endings as, for instance, the case of a farmer who with his team was killed when his loaded sleigh slid sideways on a patch of ice and over a precipice, while going down the Plattekill Clove trail.

Judge Is Poetic In Ruling About Strip Tease Artist

Cincinnati, June 11 (AP)—A strip-tease artist swaying through her take-off routine isn't obscene, says Judge Stanley Struble.

In a long and almost poetic ruling, the Common Pleas jurist declared unconstitutional yesterday an Ohio statute dealing with obscene literature.

"There can not be any obscenity in 'God's own handiwork,'" Judge Struble said.

He acquitted Oscar Lerner, Cincinnati news dealer, who was charged with possessing and selling obscene literature. He declared unconstitutional a 1943 amendment to the Obscene Literature Law.

"Obscene literature statutes," said the judge, "are shackles on the brains of men, which is as bad if not worse than shackles on the limbs of men."

Of a strip-tease series in a magazine, he commented:

"These front views, as well as the other views, are of God's own children as He made them in His image. There can be no obscenity in God's own handiwork."

"There is nothing unchaste or shameful in a woman disrobing—she does so in the privacy of her dressing room, and she is doing that very necessary and proper thing has turned some males of the species into 'peeping Toms'."

"There isn't anything distasteful to the eye in this strip-tease act. This young woman has a nice face and form and is nicely apparelled. She is graceful and particularly graceful in performing her act. All she is doing is cashing in on the curiosity of a lot of people for the satisfaction of which they spend so much of their time and money."

"Sure, normal ideas are all right. All mankind have sex ideas. Nature is aflame with sex ideas: the foot of the owl, the eye of the dove, the blossoms of the flowers, plants and tree, the spawning of fish."

"Sex," said the jurist, "is the way and wherefore of life and living."

Clarke Is Appointed Assistant Actuary

The appointment of John W. Clarke, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Clarke, 107 Hurley avenue, as assistant actuary in the life actuarial department of the Travelers Insurance Company was announced recently in Hartford, Conn., where he is employed.

Mr. Clarke joined the Travelers in the life actuarial department in 1947, following his graduation from Cornell University where he was Phi Beta Kappa. He served two years in the Army Air Forces and was separated from active duty as a captain. Following his return to the insurance company, he was transferred to the casualty actuarial department in 1946 and later to the executive department.

He is a Fellow of the Actuarial Society of America and the American Institute of Actuaries. He is an associate of the Casualty Actuarial Society.

Mr. Clarke received his Fellowship in May, 1947, only six months after he was made an associate, making the first time that a Fellowship had been completed within so short a period after passing the association examinations.

He expects no peace.

Nanking, Friday, June 11 (AP)—Premier Wong Wen-Yu told the legislative Yuan today China could not expect peace in two years. In his first report to the republic's legislative body, the new premier said top priority would be given efforts to defeat the Chinese Communists. The Reds' strength is growing steadily. "We must send larger fighting forces to Manchuria and to central and north China," Wong told the lawmakers.

Magnetic Fluid Locks Autos' Clutch Plates

New York, June 11 (AP)—A new kind of magnetic fluid for autos that locks the clutch plates as strongly as if by iron clamps, is announced today in the review of scientific instruments.

The fluid is the invention of Jacob Rabinow, of the National Bureau of Standards, Washington.

The new fluid is plain oil, filled with millions of fine particles of iron. A little electric current from the battery magnetizes the iron particles.

The bits of metal thereupon form themselves into chains between the two plates forming the clutch, one of the plates being the drive from the engine, and the other the pickup that transmits this power to the wheels.

The announcement says this kind of clutch is absolutely smooth. It says there never is any "clatter," that shaking motion of the auto that causes red faces in drivers. Wear is said to be virtually non-existent.

Although the build-up of the force taking the two plates together is smooth, it finally becomes 100 per cent. They turn in unison as if clamped together.

The announcement says this same magnetic fluid can be used to make auto brakes. It says also that there are numerous other uses, for various kinds of motors and for automatic control devices.

Netburns Purchase Upper B'way Property

The building at 726 Broadway now occupied by the Broadway Luncheonette and the adjoining lots numbered 722 and 724 have been purchased by the Netburn Plumbing Supply Company, it was announced today.

Edward E. Netburn, operators of the plumbing supply company, stated they plan to erect a modern showroom and branch warehouse on the new location, to be used in addition to their present downtown building at 71-75 Broadway.

Preliminary drawings of the new building have been made, but the date for starting actual construction has not been decided upon, according to Edward Netburn.

Present plans call for erecting the new building adjoining the present brick structure at 722 Broadway. In the meantime, the Broadway Luncheonette will remain under a month-to-month lease, Netburn said.

With the completion of the new showroom and warehouse, the Netburn company plans to add a line of many new household items.

The property was purchased from Helen M. Dempsey through the realty agency of Joseph F. Saccoman. It consists of a lot with a 90 foot frontage on Broadway and about 100 feet deep, and besides the brick structure formerly known as the Shanty Store, which will be removed. The property is between the Hub Delicatessen and a building at 720 Broadway owned by Saccoman. It was formerly a part of the Cook estate. The Netburn Plumbing Supply Company was established in 1908 by Harry Netburn.

Rochester Smiles For Very Sad Man Who Fought 'Rebs'

Rochester, N. Y., June 11 (AP)—This city of lilacs put on its gayest smile today for a "very sad" man who fought in the Civil War and has outlived most of his buddies.

James A. Hard, 106, was performing his last duties as commander of the New York Department, Grand Army of the Republic. After tonight, there will be no state G.A.R.

Hard was the only delegate to the three-day final encampment, the 82nd, although five affiliated organizations carried on their activities.

Today was a civic holiday, beginning with an interfaith religious service and ending tonight with an historical campfire pageant at Highland Park Bowl. Hard was the guest of honor for a public luncheon. A parade also was on the program.

Hard held his final business meeting yesterday. He rapped his gavel three times, asked for a reading of the minutes, called for the chaplain's prayer and the roll call. But there was no response.

The only other surviving New York G.A.R. member, Robert Rownd, 103 of Ripley, had sent his regrets. He was ill. Hard said he had been counting on Rownd's help to see that the records were in order.

"I feel very sad," Hard said of the G.A.R.'s dissolution. It's like losing an old friend, but we have to dispose of our organization while we're able."

At separate meetings, Mrs. Georgiana Reed of Waukegan, L. I., was elected president of the Women's Relief Corps; Mrs. Ruth Barrett of Rochester was chosen to head the Daughters of the Union Veterans, and Mrs. Myra Mon-ross of Auburn for the Ladies of the Grand Army.

Mrs. Helen Quigley, Flushing, L. I., was chosen as a member of the executive committee of the Daughters of Union Veterans.

Mrs. Irene Perry, Yonkers, was named patriotic instructor and Mrs. Margaret Hanna, Woodhaven, L. I., counselor of the Ladies of the G.A.R.

The Sons of Union Veterans and its auxiliary were the other groups.

Ives Is Considered Ace By New York Republicans

Albany, N. Y., June 11 (AP)—New York Republicans consider Ives as the state's ace-in-the-hole possibility for representation on the 1948 national ticket should Governor Dewey fail to win the Presidential nomination.

Political depositors consider Ives' designation for vice-presidential as a remote possibility. They all, however, that his designation is becoming less likely in the face of increasing confidence in the Dewey camp that the governor is.

The Dewey campaign slowed down the New York's defeat in Wisconsin and Nebraska but has been a factor in the Oregon victory.

Ives, who earned his campaign name with this week, said he would be expected to lead the New York delegation at Philadelphia.

Here Is Outlook

Ives presumably would enter the picture only if:

1. Dewey could not win a clear-cut decision.
2. The convention, deadlocked, nominated Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan or another middlewesterner or westerner.
3. The Philadelphia president-makers turned to Ives as the easterner needed to balance the ticket and help swing vital New York state.

Talk of Ives as a vice-presidential possibility under these conditions has persisted for more than a year. As it stands, Ives is joshing presidential lightning aside by working for Dewey.

He is a key member of the Dewey campaign organization.

Politicians say Ives presumably would have the backing of New York's 97-member delegation.

should he emerge as a serious possibility for the No. 2 spot.

Other Points

Other points in Ives' favor, say his friends, are:

1. His 16-year record as a leader of New York's Assembly, where he battled successfully for important labor and race relations legislation.
2. His quick rise to the top ranks of U. S. senators during his "freshman" term.
3. The apparent respect in which he is held by Vandenberg and other Senate leaders.

Whether Ives will be put under the convention microscope is a question that will be answered only in Philadelphia.

As one long-time assemblyman associate put it:

"Sure, he would accept the vice-presidential nomination. How could he refuse it?"

Feinberg Mystified

Senate Majority Leader Benjamin F. Feinberg has been making speeches for 45 years. During that time he also has listened to a lot of oratory.

But he had a new experience when he addressed the state convention of young Republicans at Schreiner Lake last month.

He finished, the delegates applauded. The Republican leader figured he had made a good speech, but he hadn't expected an ovation.

Then, when he heard a shout of "more," it dawned upon him. They wanted an encore.

Feinberg got up again and gave them an encore.

He still is mystified.

"I've heard of an encore to a speech before and don't expect to again," he commented.

Won't Marry Wicker

Daytona Beach, Fla., June 11 (AP)—The New York hutchback girl who wants a husband—if he'll give her $10,000—is still looking. Mrs. Dorothy Lawlor says she's going home to New York Monday and that she will not marry Danny Wicker, but proprietor who invited her here. Yesterday she said Wicker had not produced evidence of possessing the $10,000. Danny said he and Mrs. Lawlor were not cut out for each other and went to the airport to buy her return ticket. "As Dorothy put it," said Wicker, "we are both too nervous to ever have a successful marriage."

HIGHLAND NEWS

Highland, June 11—Mrs. Harold Lent, president of Chapter A, P.E.O., presided at the meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Maynard and gave the report of the state convention held last week in Rochester. In the absence of Mrs. Harry Thorne the secretary was Mrs. Nathan Williams. A feature of the meeting was the memorial hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin Kaney of Nyack spent Saturday here. Mr. Kaney returned while Mrs. Kaney remained for the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burger.

Directors of the library met Friday evening in the office of A. W. Lent, vice president. Plans were made for the opening of the library about July 1 in two rooms upstairs and in the rear of the Empire Market. The cleaning of the rooms, installation of lights, window shades and awnings will be done as cases and books are placed in position. The librarian, Mrs. Arthur Clarke, is at present cataloging the 3,000 books on hand. Several hundred books were salvaged and are being rebound. Many are gifts from neighboring libraries and also personal gifts.

Stone Ridge, June 11—The Town Board of the Town of Marbletown will meet next Tuesday night for a public hearing at the Grange Hall for the purpose of endeavoring to ascertain the desire of the residents of Stone Ridge regarding a change in the lighting arrangements of the district. Representatives of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp., will be present to explain all lighting details.

Dewey Makes 13 Speeches in 13 Hours

Charlotte, N. C., June 11 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey returned to New York today following a 300-mile swing through North Carolina in which he made 13 speeches in 13 hours before about 13,000 persons.

The hatless and seemingly tireless aspirant to the White House boarded a midnight train here after a one-day quest for North Carolina's 26 uninstructed delegates to the Republican national convention.

In a day that began with a breakfast meeting at Raleigh, paused at a luncheon in Lexington, N. C., and continued through a dinner meeting in Morganton, N. C., the Empire State governor lashed out at Communism and the administration's foreign policy, promised the "biggest, finestest house-cleaning in the history of the federal government," called the U. S. policy in China "an incredibly stupid blunder," and said he favored free enterprise as opposed to government enterprise.

"The Communists," Dewey said, "are the nastiest, most disagreeable, most disloyal group of worms the country has ever had. But they are worms and I want to keep them out in the open."

He declared President Truman had not succeeded in two years to clear the Communists from the government.

G. W. Sheeley, 73, Dies Following Brief Illness

George W. Sheeley, 73, of Port Ewen, a retired Hercules Powder Co. employee, died Thursday evening after a brief illness following his return from Florida with Mrs. Sheeley. The Sheeleys had arrived in Port Ewen from their southern trip Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Arthur J. Friedman said the cause of death was due to a heart attack.

Mr. Sheeley had been in the employ of the Hercules concern since 1894 when he was superintendent of the Laffin-Rand Powder Co., of Rosendale, the firm later becoming an affiliate of Hercules.

A resident of Port Ewen for 18 years, Mr. Sheeley was born in Creek Locks and on April 1, 1894, he entered the employ of the Rosendale concern. He remained in that position until January 1, 1912 when he became superintendent.

Mr. Sheeley was transferred to the Hercules plant in Pleasantville, Wisconsin, in January of 1913, holding the office of assistant superintendent. He remained there until March 31, 1915 when he was transferred to Bacchus, Utah.

The former Port Ewen resident was transferred to the Hercules plant at Schaghticoke, near Troy, June 30, 1917, and on September 1, 1924, he became associated with the Hercules plant in Port Ewen.

Maurer Is Found At Rifton; Death Due to Heart Attack

John Henry Maurer, 67, a former resident of the county home at New Paltz, was found dead Thursday afternoon in a shack behind Charles Kidd's gasoline service station and garage at Rifton, according to Leonard Belmont, county identification officer, and Coroner Ernest A. Kelly.

Death was due to coronary thrombosis, Coroner Kelly said.

Investigation disclosed that Maurer, a native of Kingston and for many years a resident of the town of Esopus, had been living at the county home until about two weeks ago, after which he lived in the shack. He was last seen alive, investigating officers learned, on Wednesday when he went for a pull of water. When discovered Thursday, Coroner Kelly said, the man had apparently been dead about 12 hours.

As far as could be learned by Coroner Kelly, there are no known survivors. Maurer had been married, but his wife died several years ago, Kelly said. The body was taken to the Ernest A. Kelly Funeral Home in Kingston, where it will be held pending funeral arrangements.

Many More Need Dental Care, Is Fluorine Report

Research Dentist Authority for Statement: Praise Given Junior League for Its Help

The third series of dental examinations in connection with the Newburgh-Kingston fluorine demonstration have been completed in the Kingston schools. Every child between five and 12 years of age, as well as a sample of the 13 and 14 year age children have received dental examinations by Miss Emma Robinson, dental hygienist, in the fluorine project.

Dr. Sidney R. Finn, research dentist in charge of the dental aspects of the study, commented on the dental findings of the previous examinations. Said Dr. Finn, "92 per cent of the entire Kingston school population have experienced dental decay. At 11 years of age, each child averages 8.8 per cent decayed, missing, or filled teeth per child. At six years of age, 8.8 per cent of the children require dental care, yet only 12.5 per cent have received any dental care whatsoever. In other words, about seven times more children need dental care than are getting it."

Continued Dr. Finn, "Parents should make every effort to see that their children's teeth have all the necessary treatment to avoid an ultimate loss of teeth. The members of the Kingston Junior League have been most helpful in assisting in the schools. Dr. Finn would like to thank, personally, the following members who have been so helpful: Messdames Richard Jones, Burton Davis, James Quinn, Conrad Gross, James Spauld, Jr., Harold Darling, Robert Herzig, Jacob Tremper, Ray Garaghan, George Silkwood, Carl Anderson, Herbert Johnston, Robert Moseley, Henry Parker, Walter Perrell, John D. Schornmaker, Jr., Edwin O'Reilly, and Andrew Gilday.

Members of the Kingston Junior League have also been giving voluntary service during March and April in the fluorine study clinic rooms on East O'Reilly street where Dr. David E. Overton, research pediatrician, examines infants and children. The Junior League members rendered faithful service as hostesses, receiving the mothers, undressing and dressing the infants, and assisting Miss Sylvester in taking X-ray pictures. Dr. Overton has extended his gratitude for their work which permitted him to schedule more examinations in each day.

The fluorine study is enrolling new babies, and Miss Clara Briggs, the state public health nurse, assigned to this project, is scheduling the examinations daily. If any parents have a baby not over one year of age and desire information about this study, they are invited to consult their doctor about such enrollment and then telephone to Miss Briggs at Kingston 2580-extension 12, for an appointment. The routine visit to the fluorine study clinic includes a pediatric examination to record growth and development, an examination of the teeth by a dental hygienist, and special X-ray pictures of the bones to study the infant's rate of growth. The results of the pediatric examinations and the X-ray studies are always available to the local doctor.

Boulevard Gulf Wins Over Jones Dairy in City League, 4 to 3

Al Gruner Stops Dairymen for Their 3rd Loss

The champ is hanging on the ropes in the City Baseball League.

Jones Dairy's "comeback" in the twilight circuit hit a snag against Boulevard Gulf Gas yesterday at the Athletic Field and the Gasmen's 4 to 3 victory set the Dairymen back on their heels with a 3 and 3 record.

Big Al Gruner, the high school coach who pitches only when the toughest competition is on the line, throttled the 1947 kingpins with an effective 7-hit chore.

Lay Battling Star Gruner shared laurels with Charlie Lay, probably the oldest player in the two leagues, who lashed a pair of singles including the game-winning blow in the top of the 9th.

After Lay's line single to left center had given him a 4-3 edge, Gruner stopped the Dairymen cold. Cy Brown went six innings for Jones and was relieved by Billy Windburn.

Jimmy Ashdown stroked "3 for 3" all singles for Jones. Boulevard's introduced a new shortstop, Gus Koch, who celebrated his debut with a triple.

Jones led 2-1 at the end of the second. Van Derzee got a life on Lay's outfield error in the first, moved up on a sacrifice and scored on Schatzel's single. A pass to Berardi and hits by C. Brown and Ashdown scored one in the second.

Winning Rally Koch's walk, Lay's sacrifice and

Major League Roundup

By The Associated Press

By RALPH RODEN, Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn once again are being called the Mr. Right and Mr. Left of the Boston Braves' pitching staff.

Sain and Spahn each won 21 games for the Braves in 1947 and the National League pennant hopes of the Braves hinge on their duplicating that feat this year.

Both, however, got off to poor starts. Each won only one game out of his first three contests.

Sain, the righthander, pitched the Braves into second place last night by beating the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-2, in a night game at St. Louis.

Spahn Recovers It was the Braves' fifth straight victory and second in a row over the Cardinals. Spahn, the lefthander, stopped the Red Birds, 11-5, Wednesday night for his fifth win and fourth in his last six starts. He was knocked out once during this streak but wasn't charged with the loss.

The Braves are only a half game behind the first place New York Giants and two percentage points ahead of the Cards and Pittsburgh Pirates who are tied for third place.

The Giants were beaten, 6-4, by the last place Cubs in a day game at Chicago while the Pirates turned back the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, in a night contest at Pittsburgh.

The American League's front-running Cleveland Indians took a 15-7 pounding from the Red Sox in a day game at Boston. The loss ended a five-game Cleveland winning streak and cut their margin to three games over the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics.

Bobby Feller started for Cleveland but was routed in the third inning when the Red Sox jammed eight runs home.

Righthander Joe Dobson went the distance for Boston, scattering nine hits to post his seventh triumph of the year.

The Athletics also enjoyed a big inning in trouncing the Detroit Tigers, 10-4. Philadelphia pushed seven runners home in the fourth inning.

Philadelphia now trails the second place Yanks by four percentage points. The Yanks' scheduled game with the Chicago White Sox in New York was postponed because of rain.

The Washington Senators triumphed 5-4 over St. Louis Browns in a night game at Washington when Frank Biscan walked Mark Christman with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth to force in the winning run.

The Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia Phillies were idle.

MAINS SET FOR M.H.S.

Clark Mains makes his last home appearance for Kingston High School today against Middletown High at municipal stadium at 4:45 p. m.

The gifted young right hander who pitched Kingston to the DUSO League pennant and has never been beaten in conference play, will be seeking his seventh victory of the season.

Middletown, aiming for second place in the DUSO race, is expected to start Art Schweickhardt, a strikeout star.

Kingston winds up its 1948 schedule Monday in Saugerties in a game that already has been postponed three times.

Hogan and Worsham Fire 67s For Early Lead in US Open

Los Angeles, June 11 (AP)—Tournament favorite Ben Hogan and defending titleholder Lew Worsham were equal pace setters today as the field teed off in the second round of the U. S. Open Golf Championship.

Their opening day 67s chopped four shots off par for the long and exacting Riviera course, but the sterling links performances told only half the story. The other half was the exclusive property of Worsham, the Oakmont, Pa., pro.

Worsham won the crown a year ago at St. Louis and won it the hard way. He beat out Sam Snead in the playoff after the two had tied with a near record 72-hole total of 282.

Snead has 69 Trailing the co-leaders into the

Morris, Barnhill, Scantlebury Are Among Big Stars

The standout team in the Negro baseball world—the New York Cubans, 1947 Negro World champions—will furnish the answer to just how good are the 1948 Kingston Colonials Saturday night at municipal stadium.

The game is scheduled at 8:45 p. m., weather permitting, of course.

The Cubans' roster reads like a Who's Who of the sepiu baseball firmament. Every addition has been made to the lineup which swept through last year's Negro National League race and then walloped the Cleveland Buckeyes, Negro American League champions, in four straight in the Negro World Series.

Muller to Start Against this colorful array of islanders, Manager Joe Hoffman will send Warren Muller, a highly touted southpaw who has yet to make an appearance before the home customers. Muller's background indicates he has enough to cope with Jose Fernandez's outfit.

Since the days of the original Colonials, the Cuban squads have been extremely popular in Kingston and Colonial officials anticipate a record crowd if weather conditions are suitable.

The Cubans' pitching staff is the greatest in Negro baseball including among others the famed Barney Morris, Dave "Impo" Barnhill, Wilfred Sula, Pat Scantlebury, Martin Crue and James Jenkins.

Barnhill was undefeated in league and independent competition last year and pitched two no-hit games. He was the best pitcher in the Puerto Rican winter league and racked up 17 strikeouts in one game.

Scantlebury Is Ace Patricio Scantlebury is a brilliant southpaw imported from the Canal Zone. A 6 foot 1 inch, 180 pounder, he has pitched in several East-West Negro classics and is the National League's leading left hander. His 1947 record was 14 and 5. He beat the Brooklyn Dodgers for the Panama All Stars, 6 to 3.

Lorenza Cabrera, first sacker, is the best hitter on the Cuban squad. He batted .361 in 1947 and is a polished fielder at the bag. Cleveland Clark, left fielder, possesses one of the strongest arms in Negro baseball.

Louden Top Catcher Louis Louden, the Cubans' No. 1 catcher, is regarded among the best in baseball, colored or white.

O'Sullivan Wins Women's Golf Title

Douglasson, N. Y., June 11 (AP)—The new eastern women's golf champion is 21-year-old Patricia O'Sullivan of Orange, Conn., who led at every pole and finished with 12 strokes to spare.

The 1947 Connecticut state champion was able to relax a bit in the final round with an 81 yesterday but still came in with a score of 229 for the 54-hole medal play event.

Her three-day cards read: 76-72-81. Women's par for the layout is 73.

Miss O'Sullivan took up the sport only four years ago yet she missed the tournament record by only one shot in outclassing some of the east's leading players.

The mark of 229 was established ten years ago by Maureen Orcutt of Haworth, N. J., six times titleholder and defending champion this time.

Miss Orcutt had her troubles from the start and finished with a 243 total which gave her a tie for third place. In a comparison of cards she was given the No. 3 spot over Mrs. R. M. Torgerson of Garden City, N. Y., who also had 243.

The defending champion had a 79 today after two previous 82's. May Byrne of White Plains, N. Y., finished second to Miss O'Sullivan with 241. She had 81-79-81 in that order.

Brooklyn (Fort Hamilton)—Tom McKeagney, 170, Boston, outpointed Dick Wagner, 173, Portland, Ore., 8.

Mixed Tourneys At Golf Links

Mixed foursome play will mark activities at Wiltwyck and Twaalfskill Golf Clubs on Sunday. Wiltwyck has a mixed foursome scheduled Sunday at 1 p. m., while a Scotch mixed foursome is slated at Twaalfskill. The regular blind bogeys are on tap at both clubs over the week-end.

Rancher Wins Race

By Two-Tenths Second

Douglas, Wyo., June 11 (AP)—A grueling 114-mile horse race from Gillette, Wyo., to Douglas wound up last night in a neck-and-neck finish.

Twenty-one of the 25 starters dropped out, and one horse died. A veterinarian said a kidney disorder caused its death.

The last of the four horses to finish straggled in early today, hours after Charles Wyman, 52-year-old Tennessean, Wyo., rancher, rode in two-thirds of a second ahead of Walt Hurner, 52, of Lander, Wyo.

Wyman rode the course in 13 hours, 43 minutes and 40 seconds to take the $1,000 purse. He made up a two-hour lead Hurner held when the horses made a two-hour rest stop at Antelope, Wyo., the halfway point.

Last year's race was won by Jack Moore, Teckin, Wyo., in 15 hours, 34 minutes and 55 seconds.

Edward Lake, one of the western residents of the Nile in Central Africa, was discovered in 1875 by H. M. Stanley, who named it after the Prince of Wales. Later Edward VII.

Glider Champion Now Sails Swift South Seas Canoes

Honolulu, June 11 (AP)—Nine years ago Woody Brown broke the world's distance record with a 263-mile glider flight from Wichita Falls, Tex., to Wichita, Kans. The mark still stands as a U. S. record.

Woody Brown never has set a foot in a glider since. "That day I was sitting on top of the world," Brown recalls. "The next day my wife died in childbirth. I never went up in a glider again."

He sailed for Hawaii to start life over. But the wind sang in Woody's blood. He turned to sailing.

Working for the army as a surveyor at Christmas Island, about halfway between Hawaii and Samoa, Brown spotted a double outrigger, two canoes joined by poles. "Its speed was astonishing," he said.

Brown came to Hawaii and talked to Hawaiian Alfred Kumaie, into helping him build a twin-hulled craft.

After Giant Canoes. They fashioned their boat after the giant canoes south sea islanders sailed hundreds of years ago. Historians say Polynesians, navigating by the stars, skimmed over thousands of miles of the Pacific in double canoes. Then the art of building and sailing them finally faded into legend.

Brown and Kumale consulted old accounts and sketches. They built a three-foot model, then tried a 16-foot craft. Their trial boat was so successful they built a 40-footer, the single modern example of the Catamaran in Hawaii.

They worked in a palm-thatched workshop without power tools, the job took a year's time and the savings the two men had decided to gamble.

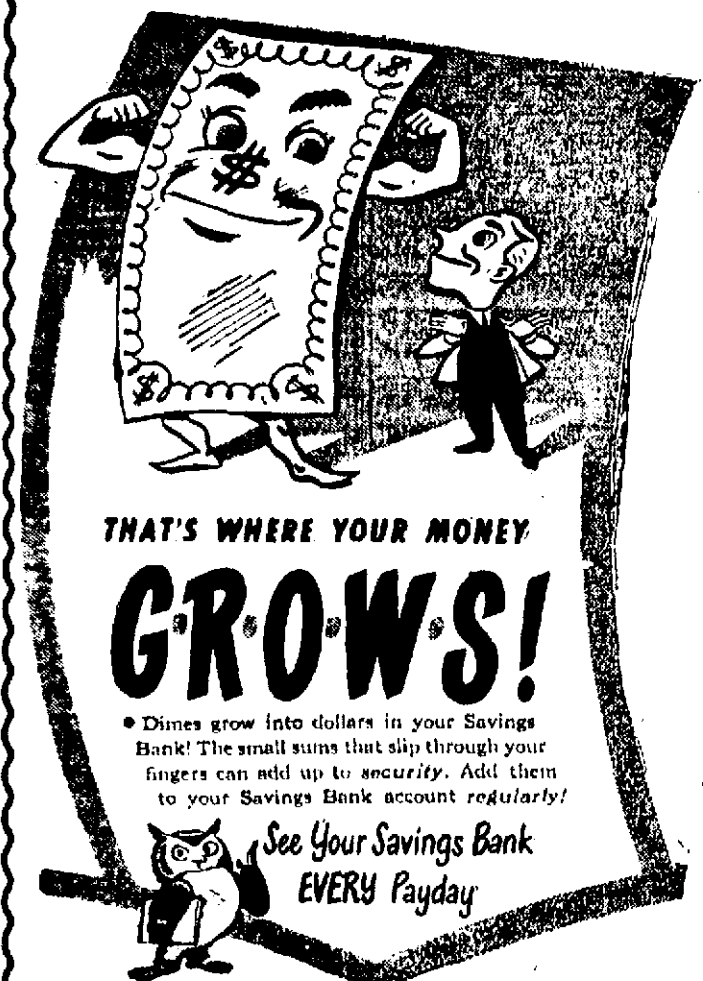

The two hulls are joined by a wing, bridge resembling an airplane wing. There is a cockpit in the span and below is room for six bunks. Without keel or centerboard, the craft draws only 15 inches of water. It rides the Waikiki breakers like a surfboard.

It's the fastest sailing thing in Hawaiian waters, with speed estimated at more than 20 knots. It consistently finishes races ahead of conventional sailboats but cannot compete officially because of the unorthodox design. Brown calls it the Manu Kai, Hawaiian for sea bird.

Sailing the Catamaran is just as thrilling as sailing a glider ever was, Brown continues. He has plans for an 80-footer, which may cost $30,000. When he launches it, says Brown, "we'll be ready for the trans-Pacific trips and we'll beat anything that sails."

Designed to Scrap Plan. New York, June 11 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace says the Palestine trustees set for today is designed to "scrap the United Nations Palestine partition plan."

Wallace, a presidential candidate said in a statement that he was glad the guns in the Holy Land were silenced, but that the truce was intended to permit "a new settlement" negotiated behind the scenes by British and American politicians.

Three Red Cross Agents to Teach Swim Classes

Three young men from the Uster County Chapter, American Red Cross, will attend the Red Cross National Aquatic School at Nakomis Camps, Mahopac, June 16-26. The school will train instructors in Red Cross techniques in life saving, swimming, diving, boating, canoeing, first aid, and accident prevention.

After the aquatic studies are over, Gus Koch, 139 West Chester street, will teach swimming to the children of Kingston at Spring Lake and to the children of Rosendale and Tilton at Sportsmen's Park, Rosendale.

George Terpening, 200 Market street, Saugerties will teach at the public beach there, which is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and Douglas Knab, 21 Hillcrest avenue, Ellenville, will teach in Ellenville in cooperation with the board of education.

Applications have been sent to the students of the public and parochial schools in Kingston by the local Red Cross Chapter to make it possible for all of the children in the city, from the fourth grade through High School, to take advantage of free swimming instruction during the months of July and August.

There will be separate classes for beginners, intermediates and advanced swimmers.

Starting in the junior class, an aquatic student can enroll in each succeeding group when he or she has qualified in the preceding one. Upon completion of the course, the Red Cross instructors will train students for the Junior and Senior Life Saving tests which will be held at Kingston, Rosendale, Saugerties and Ellenville.

Trainees passing these tests will be awarded the official American Red Cross Life Saving emblem, symbolical of outstanding swimmers throughout the United States.

The Red Cross wishes to point out to parents the importance of urging the children to swim where the water is safe and under proper supervision. Children are often "blow-out" in the water and try to demonstrate skills which they do not possess. Experience shows that it is rarely the trained swimmer who drowns, it is the inexperienced swimmer or novice who is not aware of his abilities and who swims in unsupervised areas.

The value of the Red Cross water safety program is reflected in the reduction of one half in the drowning rate in the nation since the program was begun in 1914.

Hasbrouck, last Sunday evening Mrs. Hayden was among guests entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hasbrouck's children in celebration of their parents' 40th wedding anniversary of their parents. The celebration was held at "The Chateau" in Poughkeepsie. Mr. and Mrs. Hasbrouck were presented with a ruby glass centerpiece and candle-stick holders to match.

No, readers, you are not seeing double when you look at today's hand. There are two kings of spades and two kings of hearts, and other duplications. This is a situation that happens once in a while in tournament bridge. This one came up in Cincinnati, O., at the Midwest regional championships tournament.

Frank Weisbach, of Cincinnati, who with Allen Harvey of Louisville, Ky., won the world championship masters pair event last summer, was the victim of the situation. In duplicate bridge the hands are dealt out on the first round and placed in duplicate boards. What happened here was that the North, West and South players took their cards from board No. 1, while Weisbach in the East took his by mistake from board No. 2.

When the dummy went down, Weisbach saw that South had the jack of hearts, the ten of diamonds and seven of clubs, all of

This is a situation that happens once in a while in tournament bridge. This one came up in Cincinnati, O., at the Midwest regional championships tournament.

Frank Weisbach, of Cincinnati, who with Allen Harvey of Louisville, Ky., won the world championship masters pair event last summer, was the victim of the situation. ## Carpenters Elect Officers for Year

Ulster County District Council of Carpenters, composed of five local unions, held a meeting last evening at union headquarters, 308 Clinton avenue, and elected George E. Yerry, Jr., president and general manager for another three-year term.

Other officers elected were George W. Race, vice-president and assistant general manager; Edward DeVenno, secretary-treasurer. These elections were also for a three-year term. Louis Greenstein, Casper Souers, John Tervo were named members of the board of finance and William Kuznoski, warden.

Following the election the new officers were sworn in by Andrew Smith of Ellenville.

The members went on record as favoring the Kingston firemen's referendum seeking an increase in pay. It was announced at the meeting that officers of a new carpenter's union would be installed at Pine Hill this evening. Various wage adjustments which have been made were reported. New increased carpenter wages will be effective on July 1 at which time there will also be an increase in shop and mill rates and the building trades rates will also be increased on July 1. No announcement has been made as to the rate of increase in wages, but it was stated that the increase would average about 12 1/2 per cent.

New Atomic Project Described in Michigan

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 11 (AP)—"Operation Bootstrap"—a new atomic project that seeks to make its own fuel while producing heat and electricity—was described here last night by Atomic Energy Commissioner Robert F. Bacher.

"It certainly looks enticing," he told the Ann Arbor High School graduating class. Bacher said the new project may manufacture heat and electricity at reasonable rates by "breeding" in the same process new material out of which they also can be produced. More new material would be created than the amount consumed, he explained.

At Washington, however, an Atomic Energy official said a power plant could not produce all its own atomic fuel, but would need some material such as uranium to continue operations.

More than 50 cities in the United States are now carrying on anti-noise campaigns.

Pecora Rules Scars Would Have Been Seen

New York, June 11 (AP)—If a husband never noticed the scars on his wife's body, he never was a real husband, a State Supreme Court Justice ruled yesterday.

The ruling was made by Justice Ferdinand Pecora in granting Mrs. Evelyn Biddle Duke Chandler De Baillet-LaTour of Philadelphia an annulment of her marriage.

She testified that she and her husband, Alexandre De Baillet-LaTour, 53, never had sex relations. He claimed they slept together on their wedding night and at other times during the eight months before their separation.

A doctor told the court Mrs. De Baillet-LaTour had four distinct scars on her body. The husband testified he had never noticed the scars.

Justice Pecora said the latter testimony convinced him the marriage was never consummated because "if the defendant consummated the marriage, he would have noticed the scars and other anatomical marks on his wife's body."

In the face of the contradictory claims, Justice Pecora said he resolved his "extreme doubt" through testimony of Mrs. De Baillet-LaTour's physicians, Dr. Richard H. Hoffman.

"The scars testified to by Dr. Hoffman certainly could not have escaped the notice of the husband during their eight months of marriage," Justice Pecora held.

De Baillet-LaTour, a law clerk, came to this country in 1939 and was naturalized in 1945, the year of the couple's marriage.

Justice Pecora dismissed contentions by the wife that her husband had misrepresented himself as a member of European nobility and as possessor of sufficient funds to support them. He denied both charges.

Air Leak Sets Off Sprinkler System
The sprinkler system alarm bell on the four-story factory building at 16 Thomas street began ringing at 1:37 a. m. today, but after a two hour inspection it was determined that the cause was an air leak in the system. Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy reported. There was no fire, and the water inside the building was not set off.

The building, which is owned by Victor Russo, is occupied on the first and second floors by J. B. Back & Co., on the third by the Kingston Construction Company and the Kingston Precision Tool Company and on the fourth floor by the Kingston Brush Manufacturing Company.

The air leaking from the system set off the alarm bell on the outside of the building and started water running from the outside overflow pipe, but there was no water damage inside the building. Fire Chief Murphy said.

Canoe Trip Costs Sportsmen $600

Ashland, Mo., June 11 (AP)—A canoe trip on the racing Machias river cost four Poughkeepsie N. Y. sportsmen $600, some very wet moments and a seven-mile hike.

The quartet, Leonard Mc Cambridge, Ralph Van Kleeck, Dr. Harold Rosenthal and Joseph Bennett went fishing Wednesday in two canoes.

Dr. Rosenthal and Bennett ran into trouble quickly. Their boat hit a rock in swift shallow water near shore and capsized. The men reached shore easily.

The craft occupied by Mc Cambridge and Van Kleeck hit driftwood and went down. The men clung to a log and soon got ashore.

The cold, wet fishermen were discovered by Walter Seaway of Ashland who guided them out of the woods from where they hiked to Ashland.

The men estimated their trip—exclusive of one boat which was lost—cost $600. It included camping and fishing equipment and a wallet with $100.

10 Get Summonses For Using Sound Trucks
New York, June 11 (AP)—A city councilman and 10 other persons got police summonses yesterday for using sound trucks at a rally protesting the Mundt-Nixon anti-Communist Bill.

Eugene P. Connolly, American Labor party member of the City Council, said the police action was a violation of a U. S. Supreme Court decision handed down last Monday.

The court upheld use of sound trucks as "indispensable instruments of effective public speech."

Poughkeepsie Man Held for Grand Jury

Louis Trautwein, 46, who gave his address as New Hackensack road, Poughkeepsie, was arraigned in city court this morning on a charge of driving while intoxicated as a second offender. On recommendation of the district attorney he was released on $500 bail and his case referred to the grand jury.

Trautwein was arrested in this city on April 20 on a charge of driving while intoxicated. Investigation by police disclosed that he had been convicted on a similar charge previously in Fishkill, police reported today, and in city court the first charge, a misdemeanor, was dismissed, and the charge as a second offender, a felony, substituted.

All large bank accounts and personal holdings are expected to be frozen. Holders of 3,000 marks or more will be called on to explain where they got their money. Those sums made by black-market trading or war profits will be wiped out completely. Money made legitimately or legitimate savings probably will be exchanged at a rate between seven and ten old marks for one new one.

The western allies recently set an import-export rate for goods or services produced in Germany at 40 cents. This meant that if a tin produced in Germany sold in world markets at 90 cents, the German producer received three marks from import-export authorities. Similarly, if German railroads carried freight from France to Czechoslovakia and the import-export authorities received $30 for this transit service, they gave the German railroads 100 marks.

The dollars earned were put in special accounts to buy raw materials and food for the German economy. The receivers of these raw materials and food in Germany had to pay 3 1/3 marks for each dollar spent from these special accounts.

Authoritative sources say this system will continue when the mark is devalued.
After a period of months or, perhaps, years spent in ascertaining how the mark's productive and buying value holds up in the light of world conditions, it will be up to the world bank and other agencies to set an international value.

Military government officials express hope that stabilization will make it possible to raise the living standard in food conditions from the present 1,550 calories daily to 1,800. The aim will be to balance German economy at this point so it can be self-supporting. "Any rise above this level will be up to the German people themselves," one official said. "They must take over this point and work and produce more if they want their living standard raised."

nations. Six of them have sent troops into Palestine since Great Britain gave up her Holy-Land mandate and Israel proclaimed her statehood May 15. They are Egypt, Trans-Jordan, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia.
In London, C. P. Mayhew, a top assistant to Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, told the House of Commons today Britain will not recognize Israel during the truce. He said he was not ready to make any reply to criticism of Bevin's Palestine policy, he said such recognition would be "a positive act favoring one side."

tion for emergency housing yesterday and the bill was rushed westward in the hope President Truman could sign it today when he arrived in Portland to survey the flood zone.

Charter Committee Would End Confusion on 'Vols' Funds

At a meeting Thursday night with representatives of the Kingston Volunteer Fire Fund Association, the Charter Revision Committee adopted a section for inclusion in the proposed new city charter designed to eliminate present conflicts between the charter and state law regarding the handling of foreign fire insurance funds for volunteer firemen.

Under state law, the state collects an amount from insurance companies incorporated outside the state equal to five per cent of the business done by these companies in New York state. This money becomes known as the foreign fire insurance fund, and is held by the state to be used for the benefit of volunteer fire departments according to the amount of insurance business conducted within the specified district.

In Kingston, under the old charter, there had been some confusion as to where this money would go, according to information brought out at Thursday's meeting.
Under the section adopted, the money would be paid to the treasurer of the Kingston Volunteer Fire Fund Association, who would use 10 per cent of it toward expenses and maintenance of the volunteer firemen's home in Hudson, and would distribute the balance among the various volunteer companies in the city to be used for firemanic purposes.

The 12,000-seat stadium where Mr. Truman spoke was less than half-filled.

But there was a big turnout at Bremerton, across Puget Sound. There the President said he doubts that Washington state voters will be "suckers" enough to believe Republican leaders who will "tell you what a great Congress they have been."
On top of the Capitol Hill reaction to his "worst Congress" crack on Wednesday, the two newspapers Mr. Truman referred to as the "worst in the United States" gave their replies.

The Chicago Tribune said in a front-page editorial today that: "Thanks in no small measure to the Tribune, the people of this nation know Mr. Truman for the nincompoop he is and for the vote-stealing, graft-protecting, gangster-pandering Pendergast man that he is."

The other paper, the Spokane Spokesman-Review, commented that the President spoke in "a moment of heated partisanship."

Rent Control Is Discussed Here By Area Director

In a local talk this week, Charles C. Hoag of the Poughkeepsie Rent Control office, covering three counties, Ulster, Dutchess and Rockland, encouraged landlords and tenants to call upon his staff any time they sought information dealing with rent or housing problems.

Director Hoag, talking before the Ulster County Real Estate Board at the Kirkland Hotel, outlined the purpose and duties of the board from the time Congress voted it into effect on March 1, 1941, up to the present.

The speaker touched on decontrol voted in December 1947 on hotels, motor courts, tourist homes, new construction and conversions.
He said other types of dwellings will be decontrolled as soon as more houses are available to relieve the present emergency situation.

Hoag said his office is not to interpret the housing laws but exists to enforce them and to enlighten the public regarding requirements.

Pointing out that increased tax rates have effect on rent ceilings, he advised that those desiring correct information on the matter contact his office. He said there are many bulletins available on various aspects of the housing rules and regulations.
Business and professional men joining the realtors to hear Hoag, who was introduced by Schuyler Schultz, president of the Ulster board.
